

Webinar Date: March 14, 2023

Getting ready for the 2023 County Health Rankings release PRESENTER BIOSKETCHES

Molly Burdine

Data Analyst

County Health Rankings & Roadmaps

Molly Burdine is a Data Analyst for the Data & Analytics team at County Health Rankings & Roadmaps. Molly holds a B.S. in Biology from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga and an M.S. in Epidemiology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Michael Stevenson

Evidence and Policy Analysis Team Leader

County Health Rankings & Roadmaps

Michael Stevenson is the Evidence and Policy Analysis Team Leader at County Health Rankings & Roadmaps (CHR&R). This team's work includes What Works for Health (WWFH), a searchable online database that provides community leaders, coalitions, and others with promising strategies to respond effectively to their health priorities. In WWFH, analysts systematically assess, summarize, and rate evidence for policies and programs that can affect health behaviors, social & economic factors, the physical environment, and clinical care. This research and translation effort was initially developed with funding from the Wisconsin Partnership Program at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and expanded to support the County Health Rankings & Roadmaps program in 2012.

Prior to joining CHR&R, Michael was the Director of Health Strategy at the City of Milwaukee Health Department where he led large scale planning efforts, advised on public health policy, and analyzed public health data. He has also worked as a Research Associate at a human services research and evaluation organization.

Michael holds a master's degree in public health from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Zilber School of Public Health and a bachelor's degree from Wartburg College.

Colleen Wick

Outreach Specialist

County Health Rankings & Roadmaps

Colleen Wick is an outreach specialist at County Health Rankings & Roadmaps, involved in all of the program's communications, marketing, outreach and engagement activities.

Prior to joining County Health Rankings & Roadmaps, she served as a student editor to Miles Harvey's How Long Will I Cry?: Voices of Youth Violence, an oral history compilation on the effects of gang violence in Chicago, Illinois; as a researcher and social media strategist at The HistoryMakers, the nation's largest African American oral history video archive; and as a reading and writing coach at several literacy nonprofits in Chicago. Areas of interest include brands, brand strategy, consumer insights research, social media marketing and analytics, folklore, archetypes, oral history, and individual and community agency through storytelling. Colleen has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature from DePaul University.