Building a Culture of Health, County by County

A Robert Wood Johnson Foundation program

Today's co-host, Prosperity Now:

- Prosperity Now: Learn more about this national program dedicated to supporting financial security, stability, and ultimately prosperity for millions of people, especially people of color and those of limited incomes.
- The Prosperity Now Scorecard: A comprehensive resource for data on household financial health, racial economic inequality and policy recommendations to help put everyone in our country on a path to prosperity.
- Find additional reports, policy briefs, and profiles from the Scorecard, including:
 - The Unequal Impact of the COVID-19 Crisis on Households' Financial Stability
 - The Cascading Impact of COVID-19 on Microbusinesses and the U.S. Economy
 - The African American Financial Capability Initiative
- The Health and Wealth Network: Provides a platform to collaborate with others committed to improving community financial, physical, and mental health.

Peer-to-Peer Resources Shared in Post-Webinar Discussion Group Session

- The AARP Livability Index scores neighborhoods and communities across the U.S. for the services and amenities that impact life. You can search for your location.
- The North Carolina Institute of Medicine used the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation framework with health factors and outcomes to create their Healthy North Carolina 2030 objectives.
- The County Health Rankings use more than 30 measures that help communities understand how healthy their residents are today (health outcomes) and what will impact their health in the future (health factors). Explore the interactive County Health Rankings Model to learn more about these measures and how they fit together to provide a profile of community health.

Healthy Places by Design Resources

- Healthy Places by Design facilitated the post-webinar discussion group session. Their Community Action Model was developed with insights from more than a dozen years of supporting successful community health initiatives and a deep understanding of the community change process.
