Organizations Doing Language Justice Work

Asian Pacific Environmental Network – we all deserve a healthy and clean environment where our communities can thrive

Committee Against Anti-Asian Violence \(CAAV\) – organizing Asian communities

Chinese Progressive Association \(CPA\) - founded in 1972, CPA educates, organizes and empowers the low income and working class immigrant Chinese community in San Francisco to build collective power with other oppressed communities to demand better living and working conditions and justice for all people

Padres y Jóvenes Unidos - is a multi-issue organization led by people of color who work for educational equity, racial justice, immigrant rights and advocating for equal access to achieve a better quality of life; we believe that all students, regardless of race, income, or immigration status, deserve equal access to high-quality public schools that prepare them for college

People Organized to Win Employment Rights \(POWER\) - is an organization that unites working class families, youth, and tenants to achieve economic, racial, and gender justice through organization and empowerment; our work changes the conditions and policies that exploit and displace our families and communities, by influencing policy to win immigrant justice and responsible development that secures living wage employment, job security, affordable housing, and community services

WeAct \(We Act for Environmental Justice\) – we build healthy communities by ensuring that people of color and/or low income residents participate meaningfully in the creation of sound and fair environmental health and protection policies and practices; we envision a community that has: informed and engaged residents who participate fully in decision-making on key issues that impact their health and community, strong and equal environmental protections, increased environmental health through community-based participatory research and evidence-based campaigns
